

Cindy Ryu

Quick Facts

Birth: 1957 Seoul, Korea

Death:

Occupation: Commercial/Retail
Space Management

Party Affiliation: Democrat

Years served: 2009- (H)

Office: Representative

District: 32 King (part), Snohomish
(part) Counties

Elected in 2010, Cindy represents the citizens of the 32nd District, which includes Shoreline, Edmonds, Woodway, Mountlake Terrace and Lynnwood.

After serving as a Shoreline Councilmember, Cindy was elected Mayor in 2008, becoming the first female Korean-American mayor in the U.S. Cindy was president of the Shoreline Chamber of Commerce and helped create Shoreline's Green Business Program.

Cindy is a strong advocate for the small business owner, public transportation, environmental protection, and public safety.

During her first term in office, Cindy prime-sponsored thirteen bills – measures that protected consumers, encouraged economic revitalization, insurance reform, allowing air rescue and evacuation services, and small business partnerships.

Cindy and her husband, Cody, have deep roots in their community. They've lived and worked in north King County and south Snohomish County since 1976.

Cindy holds a B.S. in microbiology and a MBA from the UW.