

Nancy R. Buffington

Quick Facts

Birth: March 24, 1939 Logan, Utah

Death:

Occupation: Emergency Medical
Technician

Party Affiliation: Republican

Years served: 1975-1979

Office: Senator

District: 34 (King County)

Personal:

- 4 children
- Swim & fitness instructor, West Seattle YMCA(67-69)
- Professional model, various stores(68-72)
- Fitness coordinator, Seattle Jewish Community Center (69-73)
- Program director; Cardiopulmonary Research Institute, Seattle(70-74)
- Washington Natural Gas Company, public affairs
- Author of Women in Cardiac Rehabilitation, 1972

Education:

- Seattle Community College
- University of Washington in Cardiac Rehabilitation

Community Service:

- Member and former instructor of catechism, Our Lady of Guadalupe

Affiliations:

- County Planning & Affiliates
- West Seattle YMCA, board member
- Munic League
- American Association of Medical Technicians
- BPW Council on Aging

Awards:

- Outstanding Service Award, YMCA(69)
- Outstanding service Award, Cardiopulmonary Research Institute (75)

Legislative & State Service:

- Washington State Council on Elderly & Aging
- Noted for defeating longtime Democratic Senate Majority Leader, R.R. “Bob” Grieve.

Committees: Judiciary; Social and Health Services; State Government

Leadership, Positions & Appointments:

- Western Conference on State Government Law and Justice
- National Conference of State Legislatures

Sources:

- “She’s Learning How to be Successful,” by Richard W. Larsen, The Seattle Times, January 19, 1975