

Cheryl Pflug

Quick Facts

Birth: 1957
Washington

Death:

Occupation: Registered Nurse

Party Affiliation: Republican

Years served: 1999-2003 (H)
2004-2012 (S)

Office: Representative, Senator
Growth Management Hearings Board

District: 5 (King County)

Personal:

- Washington native, great-granddaughter of Chester W. Morse, whose early vision produced the water system that now supplies the entire metropolitan Seattle area.
- Past nursing experience includes family practice, critical care, medical-surgical, operating room and school nursing.
- Hobbies include skiing, flying, boating and horses.
- Four children

Education:

- University of Washington, B.S. in Nursing, specializing in pediatrics

Community Service:

- PTA
- Healing for Children, foster mother
- Boy Scouts of America, den mother
- Active in church, school and youth activities

Affiliations:

- Sammamish Symphony, board member
- Local Chamber of Commerce member
- Local Rotary member
- Regional judge, elementary school gifted program
- Washington Trails Association
- Washington Pilots Association.

Awards:

Legislative & State Service:

- Appointed January 2004 to Senator Dino Rossi's seat after he decided to run for governor.
- Appointed 2012 to a six-year term on the Washington Growth Management Hearings Board.

Committees: (1999) Health Care, vice-chair; Children and Family Services; Transportation (2001) Local Government and Housing, co-chair; Appropriations; Trade and Economic Development (2003) Appropriations; Health Care, ranking minority member (2004) Education; Higher Education; Ways & Means

Leadership, Positions & Appointments:

- Deputy Republican Floor Leader, 2005
- Deputy Majority Floor Leader, 2004
- Republican Assistant Whip, 1999

Sources:

- "Pflug chosen to replace Rossi in the state Senate," by Ashley Bach, The Seattle Times, January 6, 2004.
- "5Th District Voters Offered Contrast," by Janet Burkitt, The Seattle Times, October 26, 1998.