

Jeanne Edwards

Quick Facts

Birth: September 8, 1928
Detroit, Michigan

Death: 2011, Washington

Occupation: Reporter, Administrator

Party Affiliation: Democrat

Years served: 1999-2005

Office: Representative

District: 1 (King, Snohomish Counties)

Personal:

- Residence is Bothell
- Has worked as a political newspaper reporter and editor for The Everett Herald, hospital and community health administrator, and a healthcare consultant.
- Married, 4 children

Education:

- University of Washington, some college credit earned

Community Service:

- Human Services Roundtable in King County
- Community Transit of Snohomish County, board chair
- Washington State Transit Association, board chair
- King County Human Services Roundtable, legislative chair
- King County Regional Transit Committee, Metro oversight
- Bothell Police Bond Issue Committee
- Northshore Kiwanis Club

Affiliations:

- Northshore Chamber of Commerce, board member
- Bothell Economic Development Partnership, founding member

Awards:

Legislative & State Service:

Committees: (1999) Transportation, second vice-chair; Health Care; Local Government (2001) Local Government and Housing, vice-chair; Health Care; Natural Resources (2003) Health Care; Local Government; Transportation

Leadership, Positions & Appointments:

- Bothell City Council, 1992-1999
- Snohomish Health District Board of Directors

Sources:

- “State Rep. Jeanne Edwards reluctantly retires,” by Jerry Cornfield, The Enterprise, March 26, 2004.